THE LATIN CLUB LUNCHEONS FOR 1905-6

The Latin Club Luncheons for 1905-6 will be under the management of The Latin Leaflet. We are more than usually fortunate this year in our arrangements for these luncheons. The hotel is the Marlborough and it will give us a luncheon beyond criticism. See No 126 for a sample menu. We shall have a private dining room with ample seating capacity, well ventilated and away from the noise. To members of the Club and subscribers to The Leaflet only, the price of a ticket for the three luncheons of the year will be $2.00, for two luncheons $1.50, providing the tickets are purchased in advance of the date for the first luncheon, since tickets will be required for admission to the dining-room. Fifty cents will be refunded for each unused ticket, providing the same is returned to The Leaflet at least two days before the date of the luncheon. Please remember this point and get it straight. You are therefore running no risk in buying a season ticket. Anyone may secure a ticket for a single luncheon for $1.00. These tickets can be secured from The Latin Leaflet, 1050 Bergen St, Brooklyn, or from any of the representatives of the various schools on the Editorial Committee given on p 3 of this number of The Leaflet. Please send in your orders early, so that we may take time by the forelock. The dates will always be announced at least a month ahead. The dates are already known: Dec 2, 1905 with Professor Benjamin L D'Ooge of Michigan State Normal School as speaker, on the subject, 'Essentials and Non-essentials'; Feb 17, 1906 with Professor Signey G Ashmore of Union College, New York, as speaker on the subject, "The Value of Latin to Education"; and May 19, 1906 with Professor Kirby F Smith of Johns Hopkins University on a subject to be announced later. The day is Saturday and the hour is 12 M adjournment at 2 P M, thus leaving the afternoon free for other engagements. You know what these Latin Club Luncheons are. They are recognized as the best things in New York.
